More 'Fireworks' At Site Meeting

Time For Selecting Memorial Bldg. Site Has Been Extended To June, 1947

The Council meeting of Monday evening, September 24 was well attended, due to the fact that most of the members on the various committees of the War Memorial Building organization were present. After a lengthy and rather hectic discussion regarding the location of the site, no definite decision was reached. However, as the time has been extended to June 30, 1947 there seems to be ample time to get all the facts regarding any and all locations.

All the members of the council were asked to give their opinions. Mayor A. J. Gaggero stated that the site at the top of the hill is the best in his opinion, but unless the rock can be removed at a nominal cost he is not in favor of it. He estimates that 800,000 yards of rock will have to be removed and at a cost of 75c per yard which is too high a price, also this particular property will not be fit for the erection of a building for another 25 years. He informed the organization that Engineer Klassen will attend their meeting Wednesday evening, September 26 with a prepared report as to the number of yards of rock which will have to be removed and an estimate of the cost. There also seems to be a question as to whether State funds are available for this purpose.

Councilman Craig stated that if the people of this town want this hill site, he is for it, but they must realize they have to pay for it.

Councilman Lynch stated the cost of development of the quarry property will far exceed the value of the building, but whatever the veteran wants he will vote for, regardless of his personal opinion.

Councilman McHugh will wait for the engineer's report and if the cost isn't too high said the quarry site should be purchased.

Councilman Dennis stated he was opposed to the quarry site with the rock, but if it were cleared without much cost to the city it would be a good location because with the widening of Hillcrest drive there will be a driveway direct from Junipero Serra boulevard to the top of the hill, the center of all activities.

The proposed amount to be granted Daly City has been increased from $75,000 to $100,000 for a building. Provisions may be made in the county's 1946-1947 budget, according to a statement made by Mayor Gaggero, who also stated that the city can put up another $100,000 without a bond issue.

Former councilman Burt Meritt was present and was asked to express his opinion. He did so by stating the committees are handling the matter very well and it should remain in their hands.

Walter J. Lehigh stressed the fact that because of the extension of time granted for the purchasing a site, they were not to lay down on the job.

A communication from Mrs. Hazel Marsh representing the Daly City-Colma Girl Scout Leaders association complaining about the condition of the city owned property at 101 Parkview avenue, where the girl scouts meet, was read. Councilman Lynch will investigate this matter and make a report at the next regular meeting.

A communication from the State Reconstruction and Re-employment Commission with reference to activities of the city planning commission was referred to the city engineer.

Councilman Dennis, chairman of the street committee, suggested an arterial stop sign be installed at San Jose avenue and Bepler street, where pedestrians must cross to go to the bank and post office. This suggestion met with the approval of the council and City Engineer Klassen was instructed to take the matter up with the State Highway department.

City claims were read and ordered paid.

The meeting adjourned at 9:25 p. m.

BURT MERITT RETURNS HOME FROM NEAR ATTU

Burt Meritt, former Daly City councilman, rated as technical sergeant in the civilian noncombatant service (in case he should fall into the hands of the enemies of the U. S.) returned from Shemya island, 25 miles from Attu, where he had been employed since February 23, 1945 by a private contractor working on power plants installed on the island.

Mr. Meritt who left there September 2 and arrived home Friday, September 21 plans to stay close to home.

Jeff High P. T. A. Hears Talk By Army Chaplain

Jefferson Union High School PTA held their regular meeting Thursday, September 13 in the Little theatre at the school.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the flag. The collect was read by Mrs. Ida Hanley.

Mrs. Vivian Pahlka, representative of the organization on the committee for the War Memorial building gave a report on the committee's activities.

Stanford Hannah, principal of Jefferson Union High school, was guest speaker. He discussed general school activities and aims for the coming term.

Chaplain Summer of the U. S. Army, a visitor, also addressed the group. His topic was "Juvenile Delinquency."

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

A special meeting will be held Tuesday, October 9 at 8 p. m. in the Little Theatre. All mothers and fathers are urgently requested to attend.

The executive board meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lillian Cavagnaro, 428 Irvington street, Thursday, October 6 at 1:30 p. m.

War Chest Drive Opens October 1

Just a reminder that the War and Community Chest drive opens Monday, October 1. Mrs. Muriele Pabst, local chairman urges everyone to welcome the workers soliciting from door to door and requests them to have their donations ready.

Sixty per cent of all money contributed in San Mateo county remains in this county, therefore it is hoped the local residents will remember this fact when making their contributions.

Your volunteer workers will be seeing you early next week — BE READY.

Purchases Ranch Near Santa Cruz

"Fritz," formerly of the Farmer's Meat Market, 6386 Mission street, Daly City, whose full name is Fritz Ilgenstein, has taken himself out from behind the counter where he was a well known and well liked local figure and gone to the country to raise chickens.

Formerly a partner in the Farmer's Market, Fritz is now sole owner of a small chicken ranch about four miles north of Santa Cruz. Mrs. Ilgenstein and their son Werner accompanied him when the family left their residence at 88 Shakespeare avenue on Thursday, September 20.

MEMORIAL SITE MAY BE BROUGHT TO VOTE OF PEOPLE

The War Memorial Building committee met Wednesday evening in a long and lengthy meeting with some members of the Daly City council. At the end of the meeting the matter was still undecided and may even be put to the decision of the people of Daly City.

It was stated that the owner of the quarry site would sell same to the city for $12,500 with the following strings attached:

1. That if the city sell any of the rock from said site the owner is to get 10 cents per yard from said sales. As there is an estimated 800,000 yards of rock in the site this would amount to approximately $80,000.

2. If the city ever sells the property at any price higher than $12,500 the original owner is to receive the difference in price—simply meaning that the City of Daly City would never acquire clear title to the said property.

City Engineer Klassen and Attorney Hoffmann have communicated with the Public Works Review Board in regards to financial help in acquiring a site, but so far no answer has been received.

There was no definite information brought out as to how much the building was to cost or how much the city, county, state and federal governments would contribute.

Engineer Klassen stated that for the first part of the building one acre of the quarry could be cleared of 42,000 cubic yards of rock at an estimated cost of $23,000.

Another meeting will be held Wednesday, October 3 at which time all interested persons are requested and sincerely invited to attend.

(Editor's Comment): It seems utterly ridiculous and puerile to shift an intolerable burden on the shoulders of the taxpayers just to rid one man of the burden of a "Great White Elephant." And—even though the city should finally purchase said site it would never attain clear title thereto under the sales plan proposed at Wednesday's meeting. Think it over, taxpayers!

The War Is Over—Or Is It?

The war is over—that is, the fighting has stopped. But to millions of persons in Europe and Asia the war still goes on in hunger, inadequate shelter, lack of sufficient clothing and fuel to sustain existence in the winter that lies ahead.

And the war really isn't over to millions of American fighting men overseas who won't be home for many months; nor to the merchant seamen who must carry supplies to them; nor to the thousands of wounded who lies in hospitals wondering about the future.

To the thousands of youngsters here in America whose fathers have made the supreme sacrifice, to those whose homes have been disrupted or completely broken by the great cataclysm—to them, too, the war is not over.

Yes, the fighting has stopped but our humanitarian responsibilities are as great, or greater, than ever.

The hungry, the homeless, the orphans of this war must be cared for. The morale of our soldiers and sailors who face tedious months of waiting for their discharges must be maintained by USO camp entertainment and other recreational activities. Something more than medical attention must be given the wounded as they fight their way back to health and usefulness.

How are we to do this? By giving generous support to the California War Chest campaign opening on October 1. Our donations will provide funds not only for foreign relief and the maintenance of service groups, but also will aid the agencies such as Boy and Girl Scouts, YMCA and YWCA, the Salvation Army and dozens of others whose activities help prevent crime and alleviate human misery.

War creates and intensifies suffering, but the cessation of war does not eliminate that suffering. We have fought the war vigorously and successfully; now we must fight its after-effects with equal determination.

Give to your War Chest and you give help and hope to humanity!

Peacetime Navy

Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal gave Congress his ideas of what our peacetime Navy should be like. He suggested a sea force about one-third that of our present armada with a personnel force of half a million. In it would be included 11 modern battleships, 15 aircraft carriers, 21 escort carriers, 20 heavy cruisers, 29 light cruisers, 176 destroyers, 40 escort vessels and 90 submarines. In addition to this he would keep another large number of fighting ships in reserve which could be called up for almost instant action. They would be manned by just enough men to keep them in top condition. Secretary Forrestal declared that in spite of the atom bomb there would still be a need for ships and planes to control the seas and the skies above them. The proposed peacetime navy would cost from $3 billion to $4 billion annually.

Mistaken Identity

The recent case in San Francisco in which an innocent man was convicted on a robbery charge and held in jail for five months before the real culprit confessed emphasizes once again the need for extreme care on the part of witnesses in making "positive identification" of suspects.

This case recalls the more tragic one of Bertram Campbell who was just recently released from Sing Sing prison after serving 3½ years for a forgery which he never committed. Unfortunately, there is no way for the state to atone for these injustices. However, some compensation from public funds should be made to the victims. New York state is now preparing to take such action. The San Francisco victim is not seeking redress but simply wants to get a job.

Witnesses, of course, are morally bound to exercise extreme care in identifying suspects, but if they became too hesitant about pointing out the one they believe to be guilty, the professional criminal would be sure to take full advantage of it.

In view of the thousands of cases being handled daily in our courts, the remarkable thing is not how many, but how few, cases of mistaken identity arise.

How Did It Start?

One of the great mysteries of the recent war was how it ever got started. In Germany there were no Nazis (so they now tell us) and in Japan everybody was working for peace (Japanese version). Strange, isn't it?

Woodrow PTA Holds First Meet Of School Year

At the first regular meeting of this school year, Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher Association welcomed its new officers, with Mrs. Hazel Marsh as president.

Two new chairmen and one new officer were ratified at this meeting, held on Tuesday, September 18 at 2 p. m. at Woodrow Wilson school. The new chairmen are Mrs. Mildred Morgan on the hospitality committee and Mrs. Martha Linden as door hostess. The new officer is Mrs. Ethel Hahn, principal of Woodrow Wilson primary school, as honorary vice-president.

During the business session, Mrs. Hazel Marsh and Mrs. Florence Hopman gave short explanations about the proposed War Memorial building for Daly City and what it will mean to the community as a whole, stressing particularly the need for such a building as a recreation center and meeting place for various organizations for children and teenagers. Each organization has been asked to have a representative attend the City Council meetings for discussion on this building. Mrs. Marie Sorenson was selected to represent Woodrow Wilson PTA at these meetings.

"What is the purpose of life membership in the P. T. A." was explained to the new members by Mrs. Ida Hanley, and the particular need for them in order to help secure more teachers was graphically called to everyone's attention.

It was decided that since there is to be only one whist party this year, the magazine whist party, it will be a large one and will be held Thursday, October 25, at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Meadows, 751 Niantic avenue. Tickets will be sold beforehand and the proceeds will be used to pay for subscriptions to the National Parent-Teacher and California Parent-Teacher magazines.

Members wishing to donate prizes may either leave them at Hopman's Radio Repair shop, Wellington avenue and Mission street or bring them to the next regular meeting of the association to be held October 16 at 7:30 p. m. at Jefferson Union High school. This will be a joint meeting with other units in the district.

All members of the executive board who fail to notify the hostess if they are unable to attend the board meeting luncheons, will be fined 25 cents. During rationing days, especially, extra luncheons are a waste of food and money, so anyone who cannot attend can at least show that much courtesy to the hostess.

R. L. Crane jr. gave a short explanation about the X-ray mobile unit, which was on display in Daly City on Friday, September 14. This unit will take X-ray pictures of all seventh and eighth grade boys and girls on October 20. These X-rays will be taken of the chest and will show up any heart or lung infections or curvature of the spine. All parents are urged to sign the slips when the children bring them home, as these X-rays are free and it is hoped by this method to eliminate heart diseases and tuberculosis before they become serious.

After the business meeting three short dramatized recitations were given by Joyce Petty, a member of Brownie Scout Pack No. 11, after which refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

On Thursday, September 20 five members of Woodrow Wilson PTA attended the 17th District School of Instruction held in San Mateo. Those attending were Mrs. Hazel Marsh, president; Wilma Harju, hospitality chairman; Mildred Ventura, recording secretary; Lena Banfield, financial secretary and Marie Sorenson, a new member of the organization.

New Kitchen Serves Two Purposes

Is the rocking-chair on its way back to the kitchen? Architects, decorators and home-makers agree that the kitchen of the future must combine comfort with utility, and one designer suggests a dual purpose room as cozy as that illustrated above. This is an idea to ponder for the "dream" home, and is particularly adaptable to a large kitchen which is to be remodeled. Here, a pair of chests separates the modern streamline kitchen with its white enamel gas range, refrigerator, sink and storage cabinets from the dining portion with an inviting fireplace, early American furnishings and bright plants at the windows.

Drive Slowly

The lid is off on gas rationing, Mr. Motorist: But don't forget you're pouring the gas into that same old car, with the same old tires. So, take the advice of the Safety Department of the National Automobile club and hold down your speed on that pre-war car. You know, a wrecked car, a serious injury or death are greater penalties for speeding than a fine.

Milk Requirements

Accepted rules of good nutrition recommend each child consume a quart and each adult a pint of milk daily but a report from six large cities where consumption of fluid milk is the highest shows the average daily consumption of milk there is 0.8 pint per capita.

Navy Blimps Help Fishermen Sight Fish Schools

Long familiar to San Francisco Bay Area residents are the Navy's swift, graceful patrol "blimps"—which have guarded the West Coast ocean front since Pearl Harbor, making extended daily scouting and patrol flights from Moffett Field hangars at the south end of San Francisco Bay. They've been a welcome sight to the short-crowded, hard-working commercial fishermen, too,—as the patrol duties have included scouting for schools of fish along the patrol routes, and radioing back the location, size, and approximate direction of the fish schools to Moffett Field. From there the word is passed to the fishermen's dispatching headquarters in San Francisco or Monterey.

To enable patrol blimp crew members to recognize various types of fish, Coast Guard men, who are former commercial fishermen, go on patrol flights with the blimps and conduct their "recognition" school from the air. When a school is sighted, the blimps slowly circle the area and then report by radio the kind of fish, approximate size of the school, and their probable direction. When the fishing fleets put out from Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco or from Monterey Bay they are fully informed of their most likely fishing grounds for the night.

Because the blimps cruise at low speeds they are ideal "spotting platforms" for the Coast Guard ex-fishermen, and for the other blimp crew members. The spotter usually sits in the plexiglass nose of the blimp cab, where he has an unobstructed view of the ocean ahead, below, and to each side. Fish can normally be spotted within a radius of one-third of a mile.

Black crepe specially and becomingly styled for the mature figure in a Fall dress with soft, bow-tied bodice and gently flared skirt.

A woman's age is her own secret. But she can add years, rather than charm, to her age by wearing the wrong clothes.

This is the warning, summed up, of several of New York's famous designers of women's clothes. In their years of experience in dressing women to look attractively young rather than girlishly ridiculous, they have observed "common errors" every woman would be wise to digest.

Error number one is to dress unbecomingly for your age. Mostly, it's a matter of line and of dimensions and color, and not of trim or any particular "style." Above all, your clothes must fit your particular waistline, and reach to a length at the point of the most prominent bulge in the calf of your leg. Remember that the pigment of the skin changes as the years pass, and that the shades most flattering to you once upon a time may now be unbecoming.

Error number two is not to know what size dress your figure requires. It shouldn't be necessary for you to have assistance in fastening a dress except in back. Too tight clothes are age-revealing, not age-concealing. In fact, our designers point out that a woman looks slimmer and younger if she is not breath-takingly-fitted. Ease across the back, through the bodice and the hips is essential.

Error number three, today, is to confuse the "women's department" with matronliness. Such simple, yet young and becoming fashions as the woman's dress pictured today are proof that New York's designers for the mature figure know the difference, and that they achieve a happy balance between clothes that are either too young or too old.

CCPT Opens Fall Activities--Meets In Burlingame

"Unity and the Days Ahead," the theme for the year, was ably carried out when the Seventeenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers opened its fall activities with the annual School of Instruction on Thursday in the auditorium of the Peninsular school, Burlingame, with a welcome by the President Mrs. L. G. Evans.

Mrs. J. W. Bingham, national chairman of cooperation with colleges, state chairman of college service, and Parent-Teacher instructor, brought out fascinating highlights of her attendance at the recent United Nations Peace conference at San Francisco. Bluntly stating, "The Peace Is Our Responsibility," Mrs. Bingham told how the conference, primarily called to preserve peace, gradually shifted to protecting the rights of human beings rather than the rights of governments; of the evolution of 50 nations gradually reaching unanimous agreement on the subject matter "We, the Peoples of the United Nations," instead of "We, the United Nations." The three prime educational groups represented were: American Council of Education, National Education Association, and National Congress of Parents and Teachers, the last group of which Mrs. Bingham attended as one of the consultants. It should be of prime satisfaction to all members that the National Congress was instrumental in promoting the "System for International Office of Education" adopted at the conference.

Miss Pansy Jewett Abbott gave much valuable information in her instructive talk on the "Sight Saving Class of San Mateo County," of the need of a special room for children with impaired sight who cannot go to regular class rooms. Miss Abbott stated, "our hearts must be full of courage and then we can put forth energy for anything." The organization voted to contribute $500.00 from the district as a nucleus for this worthy project.

Mrs. Gregory Davis, speaking on behalf of state acquisition of the Butano forest, urged all press and board members to write personal letters to State Park Commissioner Knowland before September 26, at which time the State Park Commission meets at Eureka.

Mrs. E. A. Poage in speaking of the projected San Mateo County War Chest drive beginning October 1, urged the members to welcome the workers soliciting from door to door. Although the war has ended, poverty and suffering will continue for many and she urged the members to welcome workers soliciting from door to door. The USO, one of the benefactors, will also continue for some time.

Mrs. Wm. J. Hayes, of the San Mateo County Traffic Commission informed those present that traffic bulletins will be issued monthly for the units. She also stated that literature on this subject is available at the Court House for all interested persons.

Mrs. Barker of the ARC explained the need for Christmas packages for the boys in transit. As so many of our soldiers will be on the high seas individual addressees may not receive their packages. Volunteers are asked to prepare boxes and bring them to Howard avenue headquarters, or Adeline drive workroom by September 26.

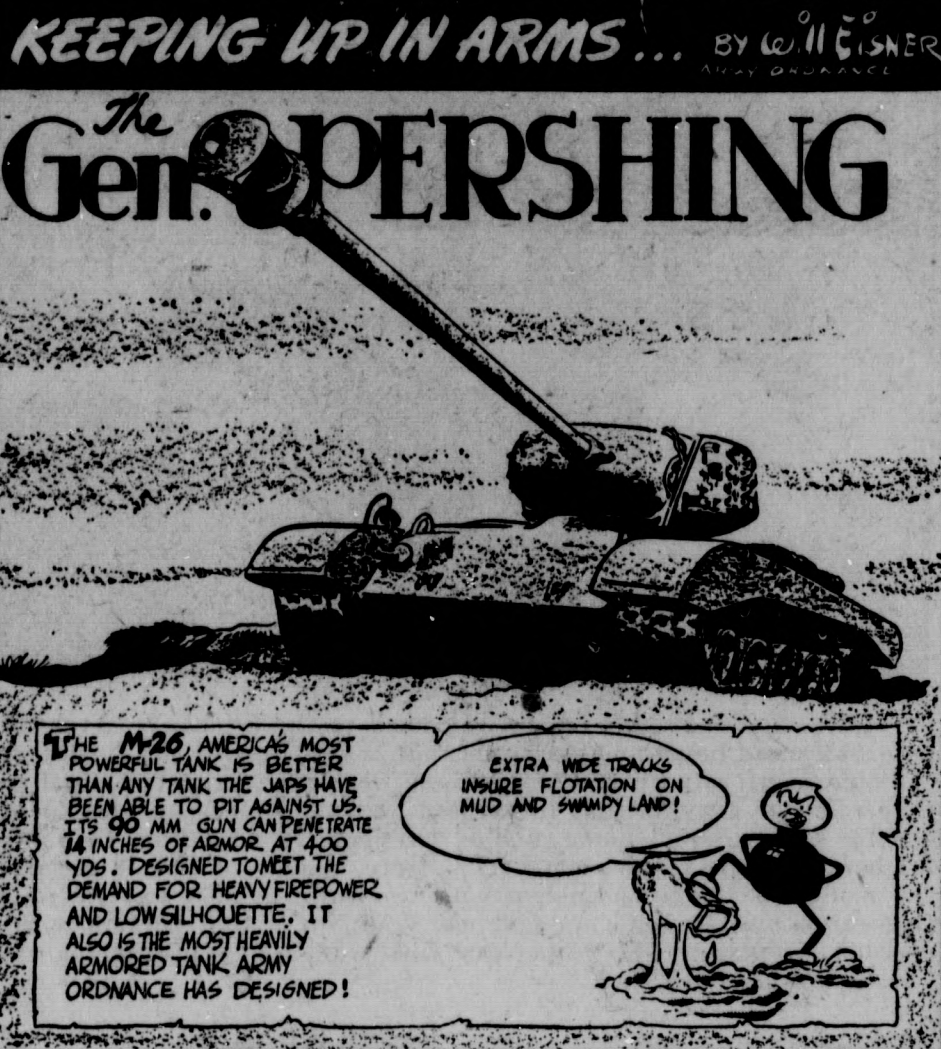

Mrs. Ruth Close explained the workings of the new mobile X-ray unit of the San Mateo County T. B. association, and thanked all present whose vision and foresight assisted in taking this forward step.

The music chairman Mrs. Florence Duerr presented and accompanied Mrs. Geraldine Bogart in two charming numbers, "Mornin' on ze Bayou" and "Ma Li'l Batteau," by Lilly Strickland. Mrs. Bogart's lovely soprano was warmly received by the gathering and she favored with an encore, "To a Messenger," by Frank La Forge.

The president, Mrs. Evans, welcomed a guest of honor, State Treasurer Mrs. E. Frederick Smith of Palo Alto.

The character thought was presented by Mrs. B. E. Myers in the form of recommending church attendance for the whole family, and the daily recitation of Grace before at least one daily meal.

The pledge of allegiance to our flag was led by Mrs. E. E. Rowley.

The meeting was under the able direction of Mrs. A. A. Kickbush, director of organization, and Mrs. M. G. Strohmeier, director of extension. Mrs. J. W. Bingham ably handles the School of Instruction, urging all members to avail themselves of the wealth of material contained in circulars and the magazine.

During the lunch hour coffee was served by Mrs. George Bruns, hospitality chairman, assisted by Mrs. C. N. Underwood and Mrs. A. A. Kickbush.

Watch Your Step!

More gas means a lot more cars on the streets again. So, Mr. and Mrs. Pedestrian, why not give yourselves a refresher quiz on safe walking. Do you look both ways before you cross streets? And do you cross at the corners. The Safety Department of the National Automobile club says that it's wise to take the responsibility of your own safety, and not rely on the motorist. After all it's your life.

Children's Lunches That Delight

By BETTY BARCLAY

Back to school means more lunch problems. Some children come home for lunch. Some carry lunch boxes. What to prepare? That's the question!

And the answer must be right, for the lunch of a growing, active child is a very important meal. It must be not only attractive and appetizing, but nutritious as well.

Here's a 1945 lunch menu for your consideration, suitable for a child's lunch, eaten at home or carried in the lunch box. Furthermore it may be served to the rest of the family, too.

Black Bean Soup
Mixed Vegetable Salad
Grape-Nuts Bread Sandwiches or
Raisin Bran Muffin Sandwiches
Fruit Milk

You'll want recipes for the bread and muffins—and here they are. The first is a new member of the bread family. The muffins—made with that popular flavor combination of 40% bran flakes and choice seedless raisins—will be favorites with all. Delicious toasted or spread with a sandwich mix, jam, jelly or marmalade! A perfect accompaniment for a meatless meal! And the cereals used in making these home baked breads may be counted on to contribute iron, niacin and thiamine.

Grape-Nuts Bread
1½ cups milk, scalded
3 tablespoons molasses
½ cup Grape-Nuts
2 cups sifted flour
2½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1½ teaspoons salt
½ cup sugar
1 egg, well beaten
3 tablespoons melted shortening

Combine milk and molasses. Pour over cereal and let stand until cool. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift again. Add egg and shortening to cereal mixture and mix well. Add flour mixture, stirring only enough to dampen all flour. Turn into greased loaf pan, 9x5x3-inches, and let stand 20 minutes. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 hour, or until done. Wrap in damp cloth or waxed paper and store several hours or overnight before slicing.

Grape-Nuts Prune Bread. Use above recipe, adding ½ cup finely cut, soaked prunes to Grape-Nuts mixture.

Grape-Nuts Fruit Bread. Use above recipe, adding 1 cup currants or chopped raisins to Grape-Nuts mixture.

Raisin Bran Muffins
1 cup sifted flour
3½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening
2 cups raisin bran

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Combine egg and milk. Add to flour mixture, add shortening then mix only enough to dampen flour. Fold in raisin bran. Turn into greased muffin pans, filling them ¾ full. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) 20 minutes, or until done. Makes 10 medium muffins.

For a sweet muffin, add 2 tablespoons sugar, honey, or corn syrup to milk mixture.

News Notes Of Crocker School

During the summer vacation many students of Room 4 traveled widely. Places visited included Grass Valley, Pinecrest, Santa Cruz and many others.

Since the unit of work in Room 2 is to be the "Story of Textiles" the class is planning on making a model of a spinning wheel.

Jimmie Weston, a newcomer at the beginning of the term, has returned to Sparks, Nevada.

Since the opening of the term four new pupils have enrolled in Room 3. Robert Davis transferred from San Bruno, the other three are Mary Alice Coverdale, Adele Hansen and Dale Nethercutt.

Last week the students of Room 2 welcomed John McCabe to their class.

The students of Room 4 were sorry to have Geraldine Shroyer leave their class. She is moving out of town.

Room 5 is glad that Ronald Watkins is well enough to be in school again. They also report an increase of five new students.

Gloria Lund has transferred to San Francisco and Katherine Donley has returned to Crocker school according to reports from Room 6.

Benjamin Stern now answers roll call in low eight.

Pep Up Plants

A side-dressing of either a complete fertilizer or nitrogen alone, applied to many vegetable crops in the late summer when they are producing fruits or growing a root, will pep up the plant just enough to more than pay for the application. In many instances this extra plant vigor may be the factor needed for the maturing of a full crop of fruits or greatly increasing the size of root crops. Let the plants be your guide. They will indicate whether or not extra fertilizer is needed.

Careless Wringing

Buttons—broken or missing from clothes—and ridges worn in the rubber rolls of the washing machine are double evidence of carelessness in wringing. Fold all buttons, buckles and zippers inside cloth before running the garment through the wringer.

Royal Kingship

Members of the House of Coburg of Germany made so many marriages among the royalty of Europe that their princes and dukes were said to have made kingship a career. Leopold became King of the Belgians, married the daughter of George IV of England; Ferdinand wed the Queen of Portugal, was regent of the kingdom; Ernest turned down the crown of Greece; Albert married his cousin, Queen Victoria of England. Earlier, one of the Coburg women had become England's Duchess of Kent and mother of Queen Victoria.

Black Potatoes

Investigation of the reasons for the blackening of cooked potatoes indicate the discoloration may be caused by iron within the potatoes or by lack of potash, phosphorus, or calcium in soils.

Have you tried these bread winners?

Variety is the spice of any meal . . . and bread lends itself admirably to "dressing up" a menu. Toasts, for instance, may be crisp, dry appetizers, or sweet enough to serve as desserts. Dumplings and puddings with a bread base are standbys for all good cooks. Add these to your repertoire of recipes.

MELBA TOAST

Cut dry bread slices into triangles or strips and arrange on baking sheet; place in slow oven (300° to 325° F.) for about 20 minutes or until evenly brown and crisp. Turn several times.

SWEET TOASTS

Toast slices bread on one side; spread untoasted side with toast topping, cut in strips and place under broiler until mixture bubbles. Each mix sufficient for 6 slices bread.

Cinnamon Toast—Combine ¼ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, 1½ teaspoons flour and cut in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Orange Toast—Combine ¼ cup sugar, 1½ teaspoons orange juice, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind. Toast may be buttered immediately before spreading on mixture.

Butterscotch Toast—Cut 2 tablespoons butter or margarine into ¼ cup brown sugar.

Honey-Cinnamon Toast—Butter toast; spread with honey and sprinkle lightly with cinnamon.

BREAD CRUMB DUMPLINGS

Sift and measure 1 cup all-purpose flour; sift again with 3 teaspoons baking powder and 1 teaspoon salt. Add 1 cup dry bread crumbs. Cut in 2 tablespoons shortening; add 1 well-beaten egg, ¾ cup milk and 1 tablespoon grated onion. Mix carefully and drop on gently boiling stew or gravy. Cover tightly and steam 20 minutes without removing cover. Makes 12 dumplings.

BUTTERSCOTCH BREAD PUDDING

4 slices bread 4 cups milk
½ cup peanut butter 3 eggs
½ cup brown sugar, ¼ tsp. salt firmly packed 1 tsp. vanilla
2 tbs. melted butter or margarine

Spread bread with peanut butter; place in well-greased baking dish. Combine sugar and butter or margarine in saucepan and cook over low heat about 5 minutes. Add milk and bring to boil. Beat eggs well; add salt and vanilla; add liquid slowly. Pour over bread slices. Bake in pan of hot water in moderate oven (350° F.) for 45 minutes or until custard is set. Serves 6.

Mrs. Cora Oberg Compliments Girls On Camp Behavior

On September 19, a joint meeting of the Girl Scout council members, leaders and committee members was held in the Little Theatre of Jefferson Union High school at 8 p. m.

A report was given by Mrs. Cora Oberg, camp director, in which the girl scouts were given a very nice compliment. She congratulated the girls on their grand conduct and lack of homesickness while at Monte Toyon.

A communication from national headquarters urged all leaders to have older children return to school, now that vacation is over, as education is one of the major aims in life.

Mrs. Muriel Pabst gave a report on Day Camp, stating the girls learned many of the necessary out of door tasks. All girls who attended four days or more received an apprentice woodsman certificate.

Girl Scout calendars have been ordered for the coming year. Those interested in obtaining one may leave their order with any one of the girl scouts.

Many other subjects were discussed, such as the availability of a permanent scout house for the girls, leaders' training courses and girl scout week activities.

The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, October 22, to be held in the Little Theatre at Jefferson Union High school at 8 p. m.

Ilo Lease And W. E. Robinson Wed At Pres. Church

Ilo Carlene Lease became the bride of William Elmer Robinson, U. S. Marine Corps, Sunday at 7 p. m. at the Grace Presbyterian church, Hanover street and Evergreen avenue. Reverend William Harberts officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a black suit and and orchid corsage.

Sole attendant of the bride was Mrs. R. W. Staples, sister of the groom.

Best man duties were performed by William G. Groerer, also of the Marine corps, who formerly was an employee of the Daly City Record.

The bride and groom are both from the State of Ohio.

Right Approach

STEPPING into a school year of versatile activities, CBS singer Ruth ("Youth on Parade") Casey stresses the practicality of her suit choice. There's propriety from classroom to stadium stand in her "Tyrolean Miss" selection in navy wool. Bright red binding and pocket motif of the blazer jacket is echoed in her vivid cloche and handbag. (From Wm. Filene's Sons Co., Boston, Mass.)

Mrs. Louise Buttle Assumes Leadership Of Girl Scout Troop 6

Mrs. Louise Buttle, leader of Girl Scout Troop No. 2, has assumed the additional duties as temporary leader of Senior Girl Scout Troop No. 6.

The latter group met Monday, September 24 in the Little Theatre, Jefferson Union High school, to discuss plans as to activities they intend to undertake between now and Christmas.

They will work on rag dolls and stuffed toys, which will be presented to orphan children at one of the institutions.

A fashion show is also planned, the date of which will be announced later. The girls will design and make their own clothes.

Lindsey Home To Be Scene of Family Reunion

It looks as if the Lindsey family who reside at 407 Santa Barbara avenue will have plenty to be thankful for this year on Thanksgiving Day. From present indications the family unit will once more be complete by then.

On August 22 Mrs. Lindsey's son, chief carpenter's mate and deep sea diver D. Zerr MacBain, U. S. Navy arrived at Camp Shoemaker after being on duty on the eastern coast for a considerable length of time. At present he is stationed at Treasure Island and can spend all of his leave at home.

Another son, Chief Pharmacist's Mate Arthur Glenn MacBain, U. S. Navy arrived home in fine condition Saturday morning, September 22 without any warning, after having been a prisoner of the Japs since Corregidor fell.

He has been in the service since 1935 continuously. From June, 1940 until October, 1941 he was on duty in various hospitals in the Philippines.

Following this he was assigned to the U. S. S. Canopus, a submarine tender, which after a number of bombings was finally scuttled. He was on Corregidor when it had to be surrendered and he was taken prisoner. Later he was interned at Cabanatuan prison

"What I like about the

says a war veteran

"When a fellow has been away from home, especially in the dictator countries, you sure appreciate the American way of doing things."

"That's what I like about the Community War Chest... it's American and democratic because nobody's forced to give. You just give because you feel like giving. And it makes you feel good to see money being used to do good. Even though we're all mighty happy that the war is over now, we mustn't forget that THE WAR ON WANT IS NOT YET WON. There's still a big job to be done with War Chest dollars."

"It's sure tough to see how kids in foreign countries have been hit by war. Now they seem bewildered and lost in peace. It is good to see how America goes on helping them and that America has the spirit to continue helping them."

"Think of the young seamen in the Merchant Marine or the older hands working a Liberty ship across the Pacific. Their job will go on long after the last gun was fired, carrying supplies to hundreds of island outposts and bringing my buddies home again. When these men hit shore, in any one of 94 ports, they are sure glad to find a decent, clean American club of their own, run by the United Seamen's Service. War Chest dollars put them there."

"Ever been homeless? There are millions of fine people destitute and homeless throughout Europe and the Philippines and China. Homes have been destroyed and families separated. There is a long, long job ahead in resettlement. Your War Chest dollars are needed to help them."

Perfect Jellies and More Glasses When You Follow Modern Recipes!

By BETTY BARCLAY

Have you any of those quaint, old fashioned cook books stored away under the eaves? They're charming things to read, now and then—if you don't have to follow their recipes! Just fancy making long boll jellies, for instance, in weather like this—when all outdoors is so much more interesting than even the nicest kitchen could hope to be.

Grape season is one of the loveliest times of year, but then on the other hand, what's better than a cupboard stocked with delicious grape jellies and jams? That's where these efficient, short-boll recipes come into the spotlight! Barely fifteen minutes after the fruit is prepared you're ready to paraffin your perfect product, wash the jelly kettle, and use the rest of the day for your other activities. You will be delighted with the way light corn syrup may be used in combination with sugar and you will get more glasses of spreads, too.

Grape Jelly

5 cups juice
3 1/4 cups sugar
3 1/4 cups light corn syrup
1 box powdered fruit pectin

To prepare juice, stem about 3 1/2 pounds fully ripe grapes and crush thoroughly. Add 1 1/2 cups water, bring to a boil, and simmer, covered, 10 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and syrup into dry dish and set aside until needed. Measure juice into a 5- to 6-quart saucepan.

Place over hottest fire. Add powdered fruit pectin, mix well, and continue stirring until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once pour in sugar, stirring constantly. Continue stirring, bring to a full rolling boll and boll hard 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 13 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Grape Conserve

4 cups prepared fruit
Grated lemon rind
1/4 cup lemon juice
5 cups sugar
2 cups light corn syrup
1/2 lb. seeded raisins
1 cup nut meats, finely chopped
1/2 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare fruit, stem and crush well about 3 pounds fully ripe grapes. Add 1/4 cup water, bring to a boil and simmer, covered, 30 minutes. Remove seeds and skins by sieving. If desired, chop or grind skins and add to pulp. Grate rind and squeeze juice from 2 medium lemons.

Measure sugar, corn syrup and prepared fruit into large kettle, filling up last cup with water if necessary. Add lemon rind and juice, raisins and nuts; mix well.

Bring to a full rolling boll over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boll hard 1 minute.

Remove from fire and stir in bottled fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for just 5 minutes to cool slightly and prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot conserve. Makes about 13 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Spirit of Gay Nineties Recalled In Evening Design and Fabric

Soft whisper of tissue taffeta tells the revival of wasp waists and bustles in evening gowns. Mobile X-Ray Laboratory Slated To Appear In Daly City In Near Future

Daly City citizens who have contributed yearly to the Xmas seal campaign for the cure and prevention of tuberculosis can see a phase of the inspiring result of their contributions multiplied by all of America's seal-dollars in the Mobile X-ray Laboratory soon to be here as a part of the San Mateo County Health program.

This complete X-ray laboratory on wheels, a super truck of the huge Clipper-type, carries a full staff of trained X-ray technicians, equipment and facilities for the development and analysis of the X-ray "pictures" taken.

Parents of students in the 7th and 8th grades of the elementary schools and the 10th grades of high school will receive in the near future, if they have not already, a brief letter explaining that the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health association is cooperating with the San Mateo County Health program to offer free chest X-rays as a precautionary measure against possible signs of tuberculosis and other chest and lung complaints. In addition, any children with poor posture will be given special X-rays to check for possible spinal defects. With the letter of explanation there will be a "consent card" for the parent to sign as permission for the X-ray of the student to be taken. The card should be filled out and returned to the school promptly in order to assure the student of the service when the Mobile Laboratory arrives in the district. The signed card is absolutely necessary as it must be presented to the technician in charge at the time of the examination. He in turn uses it to note down his findings and comments as to what further observation, if any, might be necessary to the health of the student. Any student needing observation by the family physician will be referred to the school nurse who in turn will visit the parents for discussion of the student's needs.

If it is necessary to refer a student to the family physician, he will receive a written report of the X-ray findings and if needed, a 14x17 inch copy of the film taken by the specialist.

People who have bought Xmas seals without cleverly visualizing the actual work done with funds collected, can see in this one extremely progressive innovation, brought right to their doors, the far reaching good that is being done by the tuberculosis fighters and city and county health agencies throughout the country. The cost in Christmas seals and other contributions for one Mobile laboratory alone is $20,000 but the gain is priceless in terms of the lives it will save and the heart-break it will prevent.

Tuberculosis used to be very "Hush-Hush"—a fatal and hopeless disease around which even literature built a legend of tragedy. Like other, once lethal invaders, the tuberculosis germ has been isolated and the wolf's clothing literally X-rayed. Thus, neither your child nor your neighbor's child need ever think of tuberculosis in terms of fatality if you and your neighbor take full advantage of the preventive and precautionary measures offered by

"Red" Keithley To Return From Idaho Vacation

The many friends of Red Keithley, prominent Daly City merchant will be glad to see him back Tuesday, October 2 after two weeks vacation.

During his absence his sister, "Verlie" managed the Keithley Market with the assistance of Roy Combs, while Vireno's Market also owned and operated by Mr. Keithley has been successfully managed by "Vie" (Talley).

This is the first extensive vacation taken by "Red" since his venture into business early in 1940 at 6390 Mission street, Daly City. In April of this year he added another store, under the style-name of Vireno's Market at 6198 Mission street, of which he is the sole owner and operator.

Accompanied on his motor trip which carried him north into Oregon and over into Idaho, was his mother, Mrs. Edith Keithley, his daughter Kay and Mrs. Edna Compston of Oakland.

The rare success achieved by "Red" in such a short time is outstanding and due only to hard work, long hours and his aggressive spirit to build up a business worthy of his efforts.

This well earned vacation will be long remembered by him and we wish him continued success.

Thos. Quickert To Open Fountain Next to Theatre

"Quickie's", a name destined to become quite popular with the younger set as well as with others, adorns the front window of the store next to the Daly City theatre. This place of business, recently taken over by Thos. Quickert, will re-open on Tuesday, October 2.

Formerly with Pig and Whistle, O'Brien's, and Foster and O'Reer, where he served in the capacity of fountain manager, Mr. Quickert has had a thorough and complete acquaintance with the problems of such a business. He plans to serve the finest of fountain lunches, salads, etc., along with the regular "super" milk shakes and other fountain delicacies. Besides that he will handle pies and cakes, boxed candies, and serve light lunches, a feature of which will be fresh ranch eggs from his brother's ranch at Morgan Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Quickert have resided at their home on Peoria street for the past ten years. They have one son, Bill, who is on the football team at Jeff Hi, and three daughters. Quickert is a member of Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848 F. O. E.

1,000,000 ENROLLED IN GI SCHOOLS

The third of the Army's University Centers opened on August 20 at Biarritz, France. On July 9, the first of these Centers started operations at Florence, Italy, and the second opened in Shrivenham, England, July 30.

These University Centers are the culmination in the Army's post-hostilities Education Program for troops in the European and Mediterranean Theaters of operation.

Program includes study and practical training in hundreds of unit schools operated by and within battalions and similar military units; study in civilian educational institutions; study in special university centers; training in centralized vocational technical schools; and correspondence study through the United States Armed Forces Institute.

The most extensive part of the program in both theaters will be at the unit school level, which will include study from fifth grade through second year of college. It is expected that registration for these unit schools will exceed 1,000,000 which will put more than 2,000 schools in operation, with courses ranging from literacy training to college subjects. Four million textbooks are on hand for these schools, covering more than 300 different courses in two types of training, academic and vocational.

Instructors and administrators for these unit schools have finished their training in special Information and Education staff schools in France, England and Italy. They have returned to their units to pass on this instruction to other personnel who will assist in the operation of the unit schools.

Leaders Needed For Girl Scouts

At the joint council and leaders meeting, the important subject of "Leaders" was brought up. The Daly City-Colma district is in great need of Girl Scout Leaders.

To date there are 246 girl scouts in this district and a great many on the waiting list. In fact there are enough girls waiting to organize at least three or four troops, if only there were enough leaders.

Very shortly there is to be a

Check Your Brakes

Brakes that would stop cars in slow city traffic are not brakes for open road driving, states the California State Automobile association. Thousands of motorists are now driving the highways at 55 mile per hour speeds with 20 mile per hour brakes. Ask your garage to inspect your brakes and replace worn linings. The brake emphasis campaign in April and May revealed that 15 per cent of the cars checked had deficient brakes or very faulty brakes.

VETERANS!

Perhaps you have just received your honorable discharge from the Armed Forces. Or, it may be just a matter of days and you'll be eligible for discharge. If so, and you are wondering what you are going to do in civilian life, you should consider the many opportunities United Air Lines offers honorably discharged war veterans.

The fact is—your training and experience will help you "go places" in this rapidly growing industry. And there certainly is a future with United... expansion plans for the next five years call for operations three times as great as now. United's employees who have been serving in the Armed Forces are returning to their old jobs, but these represent only a small fraction of the airline's need for additional personnel.

There is a special need for veterans with technical or mechanical experience. However, if you have office or business training, if you are a cook or baker, there are openings for you, too. United also has opportunities for women who have served in the Armed Forces.

So, plan your future on the future of aviation with United—the nation's pioneer airline. You'll be glad you did.

OPA Helps Expose Furniture-Rent Racket Operations

Just as the scarcity of nylons, cigarettes, steaks or other wanted items aided the growth of black markets, rackets in rent flourish wherever housing accommodations are at a premium as they are in this area, officials of the local

Office of Price Administration declared recently.

"There is no indication that demand for housing in this area has lessened since the end of the war," Henry A. Cross, district OPA rent executive pointed out. "Many families desperate for living quarters are willing to go to any lengths to get a roof over their heads—and are easily victim to questionable deals."

W. H. Brunner, district OPA enforcement executive, urged that "violations of the regulations be reported at once so that these rackets in the rental field can be stamped out."

Citing illegal furniture purchase tie-ins as a common method of rent control evasion, the officials related the recent experience of a young, honorably-discharged Navy flyer:

The veteran, who with his wife and child was living in a hotel room, was informed by a landlady that he could rent a certain apartment by purchasing the furnishings for $1500. In desperation he agreed and made a down payment of $100 on furniture which he neither needed nor wanted.

Checking the local rent office, the veteran learned that under OPA regulations it is illegal to force prospective tenants to purchase furniture in order to rent housing accommodations. He learned also that he was being charged more than the legal maximum monthly rent.

As a result of a conference between the landlady and OPA, the $100 down payment and the rent overcharge were refunded to the veteran, who later learned that the "$1500 worth" of furniture had been sold for only $390.

"This ex-serviceman's close call should provide conclusive warning to prospective tenants against entering into illegal furniture purchase tie-ins in order to secure housing," OPA officials emphasized.

Defective spark plugs or other ignition parts that are not operating efficiently will cause crank-case dilution. Poor ignition always allows unburned fuel to wash down the cylinder walls and enter the crank-case.

All the girls were asked to bring their fathers to this meeting, as a surprise program has been planned by the Ducky Daughters. Refreshments will follow the program.

Advice to Mothers

With more gas in the tank, some mothers are driving their children to school again. If you are one of these parents, the Safety Department of the National Automobile club has a word of advice for you: Make sure all doors of the car are securely closed before you start off. In fact, it's wise to see that the lock is on, so the children can't push the door open. It's also a good idea to be sure the youngsters are seated before you start up. A sudden start may throw a standing child off balance.

Native Daughters Will Celebrate 59th Anniversary

The Native Daughters of the Golden West, oldest women's organization of strictly western origin, this week celebrates its 59th anniversary and each of the 186 Parlors throughout the state are holding appropriate ceremonies commemorating the event, according to Ethel C. Enos of Modesto, grand president of the organization.

Joining with the Native Daughters in their celebration are the Native Sons of the Golden West, which last July 4, celebrated its 70th birthday. With similar policies as to membership qualifications, the two groups which are made up of native born Californians or their descendants, have done much to preserve and perpetuate the glories of California's colorful past.

The Native Daughters were organized in 1886 when Mrs. Lilly O. Reichling Dyer of Jackson in Amador county, invited a score of native born ladies of that community to meet in her parlor. Several of those charter members are still living and active in the organization which still designates its local units as "parlors" out of sentiment for the early meeting places of the then youthful organization.

Climaxing a week of anniversary celebrations throughout the state, there will be a meeting Saturday in San Francisco of leaders of the statewide group, to map out plans for continuing on "an even larger scale than in the past, the many worthwhile activities of the Native Daughters which is unique in that much of its philanthropic work benefits people outside the organization."

Opening of School Increases Work of Employment Dept.

With the opening of school in various parts of the state, the problems of the California Department of Employment are increasing, according to James G. Bryant, chairman of the California Employment Stabilization commission.

Bryant said today several instructors have telephoned local offices of the department, inquiring as to whether they should "let students out of school so they could certify for unemployment insurance."

Policy of the department, Bryant said, is NOT to pay unemployment insurance to students, on the grounds that while attending school they are unavailable for work, and the instructors were advised as to this ruling.

However, the department may pay students in the event they hold work permits, which would allow them to take jobs even though they are under age. If the students hold such permits, he said, they generally are considered available for work.

"The large number of students who worked in various fields this summer, with a resultant building up of wage credits, has caused a large number of student claims," Bryant said. "However, the department feels that students are not available for work, except possibly in rare instances, and consequently, cannot pay them insurance under the law while they are attending school, assuming, of course, they have no work permits."

Water in Gasoline

Many instances of defective carburetor and fuel pump are traceable to water in the gasoline tank, explains the California State Automobile association. During rationing many automobiles were operating for long periods without a completely filled tank. Accumulations of moisture in these partially filled tanks would condense when chilled and run down into the fuel line. This moisture eventually affects metal parts of the carburetor and fuel pump with which it comes in contact.

The association suggests one way to avoid trouble is to install a good gasoline filter near the carburetor. Another way is to keep the gas tank as full as possible and drain the fuel pump strainer frequently.

Governor Warren Appoints Members Of Disaster Council

Appointment of members of the new State Disaster council which replaced the State War council September 15 has been announced by Governor Earl Warren. The new legislation transfers the powers of the war council to the governor, and establishes the disaster council as advisory to him.

Under the new law, cities and counties are authorized to extend "mutual aid" for fire and police protection. In cases of "extreme emergency," the governor may take over the direction of any state governmental agency to cope with flood, fire, earthquake, pestilence, sabotage or riot. Labor controversies are specifically excluded by the act.

Pre-war laws confined fire departments and law enforcement officers to their local jurisdictions, Governor Warren pointed out. The State Disaster plan, he said, "makes possible the integration of the activities of all agencies concerned with the protection of life and property, making peacetime use of a wartime lesson in co-operation."

Declaration of a state of extreme emergency would have to be upheld by the State Disaster council within seven days and the legislature within 30 days, or otherwise it would lapse, according to the new statute.

Burt Leahy Taken To St. Mary's Hospital

Taken suddenly ill on Sunday, September 16, Burt Leahy, 200 Vista Grande avenue, was rushed by ambulance to St. Mary's hospital where he was found to be suffering from a perforated ulcer. While he is reported as doing "fairly well" it is not expected that he will be able to return home for a couple of weeks.

Grow Fast

Chicks grow at a very high rate. One hundred day-old chicks weigh about eight pounds. One hundred eight-week-old chicks will weigh 150 to 175 pounds, or 20 times their original weight. Overcrowding causes uneven growth, slow growth, runts, poor feathering, cannibalism and usually excessive death losses.

Passes Test In West Point Exams

Pfc. Kenneth C. Fellows, a Daly City boy currently stationed at the Army Post Office, Oakland, received news on Thursday, September 20 that he had passed tests making him eligible for future West Point training.

In a telegram from Congressman Jack Z. Anderson congratulating him, Anderson informed Fellows that he had made a grade of 54.21 in a competitive Civil Service Examination for West Point, which entitles him to third alternate appointment. Fellows took the examination at Norfolk, Virginia, two days after returning from Europe while still suffering from fatigue and due to a crowded Civil Service schedule was in a group that began the tests at 10:30 p. m. and finished at 2 a. m. "I was surprised," says Fellows, "under the circumstances, to find that I made any grade at all."
